

DTS Named Title Sponsor for Summer Slugfest Series

Jan/14/2019 Warren, MI – Drive Train Specialists \(DTS\) and Corrigan Oil Speedway have entered a new marketing partnership for 2019. DTS will be the title sponsor for the Slugfest Series in 2019. DTS General Manager Claude Plante has a long racing history and deep values concerning short track racing in the United States. DTS has heavy involvement in all types of racing from Top Nascar Teams to weekend short track racers, drag racers, off road and every type of motorsport in between. DTS services everyday passenger cars, trucks and military vehicles and supplies components to DIY people in their home garages.

Claude and Corrigan Oil Speedway General Manager Jeff Parish had a meeting at PRI in the fall and a follow-up meeting in Warren today. Claude discussed trends he sees in racing and his passion for grassroots teams facing the day to day to make it to the races. DTS sponsor involvement will contribute to increasing the purse available for competitors on Sunday Slugfest events. We at Corrigan Oil Speedway encourage racers, mechanics and do it yourselfers to patronize those who make it possible in putting on our race events. DTS care's about racers and has put their money in short track racing. We thank them for their support. Please call DTS the next time you need driveline components.
